Summary of Sessions (Day-wise Highlights):

Day 1 (23rd March 2026): Time: 2:30 PM to 4:30 PM

Inauguration: The first day of the Six-Day National Level FDP commenced with great enthusiasm and active participation from faculty members across India. The session marked the formal inauguration of the FDP and set the tone for the upcoming sessions by emphasizing the importance of research, funding, and consultancy in academic institutions.

The programme began at 2:30 PM with a solemn tribute to the Hon’ble Dr. Patangrao Kadam Saheb, remembering his invaluable contribution to education and society.

This was followed by a welcome address delivered by Prof. Dr. S. B. Sawant (Director), who highlighted the significance of research-oriented activities and encouraged participants to actively engage in the FDP. The online inauguration of the FDP was conducted formally, marking the official commencement of the programme.

A preamble to the FDP was presented by Dr. Shabnam S. Mane-Mahat (Convener), who outlined the objectives, structure, and expected outcomes of the FDP.

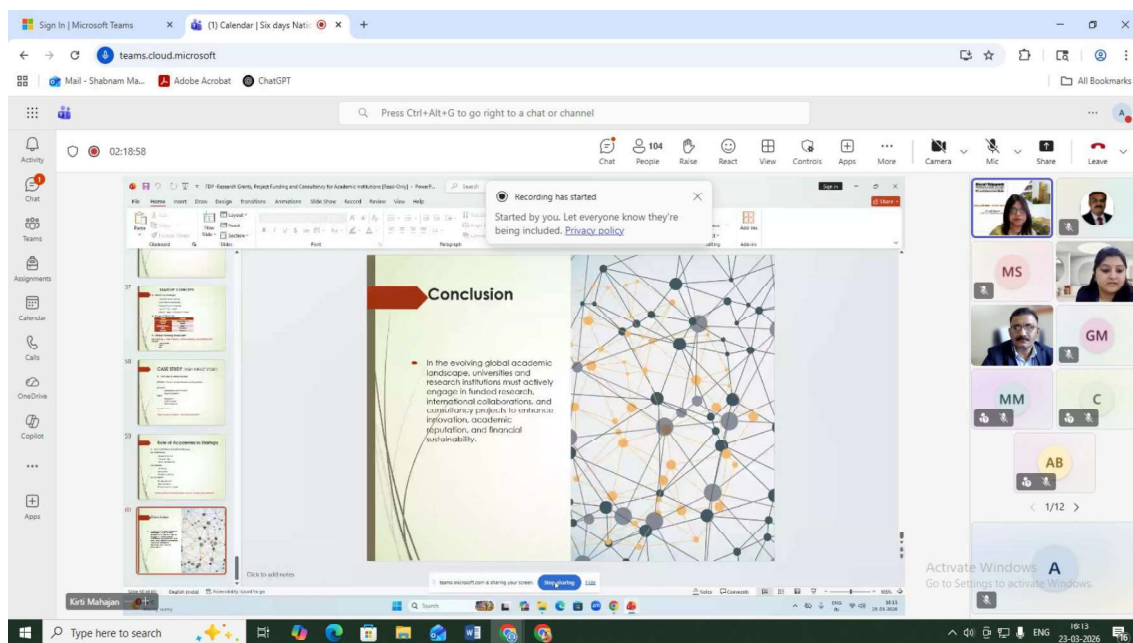

The introduction of the Chief Guest and Keynote Speaker was given by Prof. Vaishali Patel, providing insights into the distinguished profile and achievements of the guest.

Keynote Session on: “Converting Academic Ideas into Fundable Proposals”

The keynote address was delivered by Prof. (Dr.) Kirti Mahajan, Director, Office of International Affairs, Bharati Vidyapeeth (Deemed to be University), Pune. The session focused on understanding the concept and importance of CSR (Corporate Social Responsibility) funding and its relevance to academic institutions, along with its role in connecting academia, society, and rural development. The speaker highlighted major CSR funding companies in India such as TCS, Reliance, Infosys, and Wipro, and discussed effective strategies to approach them. An overview of the 17 Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) was provided, with special emphasis on Quality Education (SDG 4), Good Health & Well-being (SDG 3), and Climate Action (SDG 13). The session also included case studies on CSR initiatives in higher education, including Infosys Foundation’s digital education initiatives and contributions by TCS.

Further, step-by-step guidance was given on how to obtain CSR funding, covering aspects such as eligibility, identification of appropriate funding sources, and proposal submission. The resource person explored various research focus areas such as digital payment behavior, MSME development, entrepreneurship, women empowerment, sustainability, urban development, and skill development. The concept of an “Idea Bank” for grant proposal generation was introduced, focusing on high-impact national topics, global collaborative research, innovation, and policy research. The session also provided insights into international funding opportunities across Europe, the UK, the US, and the Asia-Pacific region, along with information about national funding agencies such as DST, ICSSR, AICTE, UGC, and ICAR. Overall, the session was highly informative and engaging, offering valuable insights and practical guidance to the participants.

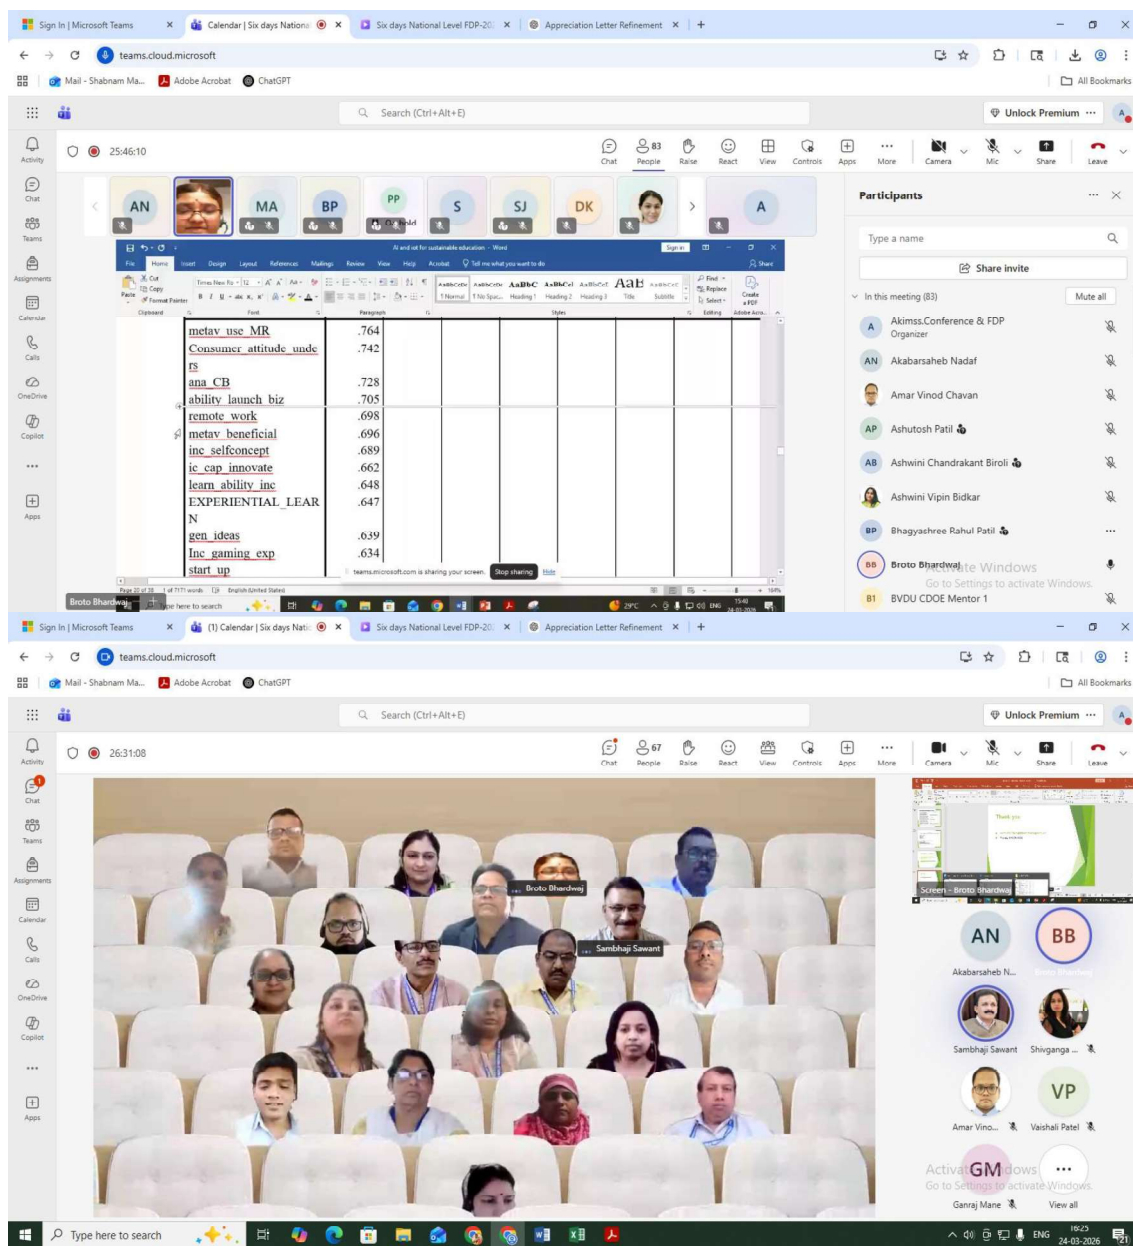

The programme concluded with a vote of thanks proposed by Dr. G. S. Mane, expressing gratitude to the Chief Guest, organizers, and participants for their valuable contribution and presence.

Day 2 (24th March 2026): Time: 2:30 PM to 4:30 PM

The session held on 24th March 2026 (Tuesday) began with a warm welcome address by Prof. Dr. S. B. Sawant (Director), who encouraged participants to explore innovative avenues in research and consultancy. This was followed by the introduction of the keynote speaker Prof. (Dr.) Broto Rauth Bhardwaj, Professor, Bharati Vidyapeeth Institute of Management and Research, New Delhi.

Keynote Session on: “How to Write Research Proposals for Government Funding for Research Projects & Process of Getting Funding from ICSSR, UGC, and AICTE”

The resource person provided valuable insights into preparing effective research proposals for government funding, highlighting the structure and key components under schemes like the Research Promotion Scheme (RPS). The session covered essential elements such as title formulation, research area identification, project summary, objectives, and project justification. It also emphasized review of literature, conceptual model development, research methodology, and data analysis techniques. Further, the importance of including current research trends, project significance, planning, budgeting, and timelines was discussed. The session concluded with an overview of proposal expectations from funding agencies like ICSSR, UGC, and AICTE, providing participants with practical guidance for securing research grants.

Day 3 (25th March 2026): Time: 2:30 PM to 4:30 PM

The session began with a warm welcome address by Prof. Dr. S. B. Sawant (Director), who encouraged participants to explore innovative avenues in research and consultancy.

This was followed by the introduction of the keynote speaker by Prof. C. R. Suryawanshi, who highlighted the speaker's academic and professional achievements.

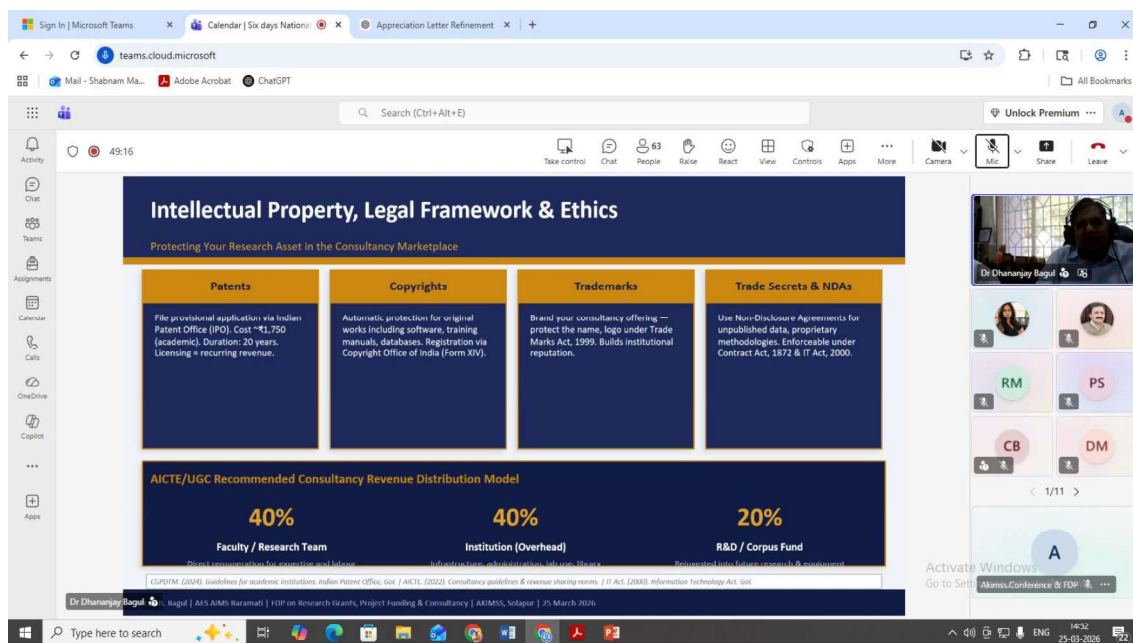

The keynote session was delivered by Dr. Dhananjay Bhaskarrao Bagul, Director, Anekant Institute of Management Studies, Baramati, Pune, on the topic: "Converting Research into Consultancy Projects".

Keynote Session on: “Converting Research into Consultancy Projects”

The resource person provided deep insights into the research–consultancy nexus, explaining how academic research can be transformed into practical and revenue-generating consultancy projects. The session emphasized alignment with national initiatives such as ANRF (Anusandhan National Research Foundation) and NEP 2020, which promote research and innovation in academic institutions. Various types of academic consultancy were discussed, including Policy & Advisory, Technical/Scientific Consultancy, Technology Transfer, and Management & Strategy Consultancy. The speaker elaborated on the steps to identify consultancy potential in research, such as identifying and defining the problem, evaluating market demand, articulating a clear value proposition, and structuring consultancy offerings with measurable impact. Guidance was also provided on structuring a consultancy proposal by converting research outputs into client-oriented deliverables.

Further, the session highlighted the importance of Helix Models (Triple/Quadruple Helix) for research commercialization, showcasing collaboration among academia, industry, government, and society. The role of institutional support systems in building a strong consultancy ecosystem was also discussed. A detailed Standard Operating Procedure (SOP) framework was presented, outlining a 12-month roadmap for converting research into consultancy, including Phase 1 (Self-Assessment & Readiness), Phase 2 (Client Identification & Proposal Development), Phase 3 (Project Execution & Monitoring), and Phase 4–6 (Closure, Dissemination & Scale-Up). Additionally, the session introduced a 90-Day Action Plan to help faculty members initiate consultancy activities effectively and immediately.

The session concluded with a vote of thanks by Prof. C. R. Suryawanshi, expressing gratitude to the resource person and participants. The Day 3 proceedings ended on a positive note with enhanced clarity on transforming research into consultancy opportunities.

Day 4 (26th March 2026): Time: 2:30 PM to 4:30 PM

The fourth day of the Six-Day National Level FDP was conducted on 26th March 2026 (Thursday). The session began with a warm welcome address by Prof. Dr. S. B. Sawant (Director), who emphasized the importance of understanding funding mechanisms and encouraged participants to focus on quality research aligned with funding agency expectations. This was followed by the introduction of the keynote speaker Dr. Basavaraj S. Benni, Professor and Chairman, Department of Economics, Manvika Bhavan, Bangalore University, Bangalore by Dr. Shivganga Maindargi, who highlighted the speaker's vast academic experience and contributions in the field of economics and research.

Keynote Session on: "Understanding Evaluation Criteria of Funding Bodies"

The resource person provided valuable insights into the evaluation process adopted by various funding agencies. He elaborated on the key criteria used by organizations such as ICSSR, including the importance of research relevance, originality, methodological clarity, feasibility, and expected outcomes. The session emphasized how researchers should align their proposals with the objectives and priorities of funding bodies to increase the chances of approval.

Dr. Benni also explained the ICSSR report writing process, highlighting the structure, documentation, and compliance requirements necessary for successful submission. He further guided participants about the timeline and opening of funding calls, enabling them to plan and prepare proposals effectively in advance.

The session was highly informative and helped participants gain a clear understanding of how proposals are evaluated and how to meet the expectations of funding agencies, thereby enhancing their ability to secure research grants.

Day 5 (27th March 2026): Time: 2:30 PM to 4:30 PM

The Fifth day of the Six-Day National Level FDP was conducted on 27th March 2026 (Friday). The session began with a warm welcome address by Prof. Dr. S. B. Sawant (Director), who emphasized the importance of understanding funding mechanisms and encouraged participants to focus on quality research aligned with funding agency expectations.

This was followed by the introduction of the keynote speaker Dr. Pallavi Jamsandekar, Director, Bharati Vidyapeeth (Deemed to be University), Pune, Institute of Management and Rural Development Administration, Sangli, highlighting her academic excellence and professional contributions.

Keynote Session on: “Beyond the Proposal: Connecting with Funding Agencies Effectively.”

The keynote session was delivered by Dr. Pallavi Jamsandekar on the topic: “Beyond the Proposal: Connecting with Funding Agencies Effectively.” The speaker elaborated on the importance of building strong professional relationships with funding agencies, effective communication strategies, and maintaining transparency and credibility in research proposals. She also guided participants on networking, follow-ups, and aligning research objectives with the priorities of funding organizations to enhance the chances of securing grants.

The session concluded with a vote of thanks by Prof. Neeta Kulkarni, expressing gratitude to the resource person and participants. The Day 5 session was highly informative and provided valuable insights into establishing meaningful connections with funding agencies and strengthening research funding opportunities.

Day 6 (27th March 2026): Time: 11:00 AM to 01:00 PM

The Sixth day of the Six-Day National Level FDP was conducted on 28th March 2026 (Saturday). The session began with a warm welcome address by Prof. Dr. S. B. Sawant (Director), who emphasized the significance of exploring various funding opportunities and encouraged participants to develop research proposals aligned with the requirements of different funding agencies.

This was followed by the introduction of the keynote speaker, Dr. B. T. Lawani, Director, JSF Research Centre (Affiliated to Pune University), Pune, by Dr. D. D. Mhetre, who highlighted his vast experience in research and his valuable guidance in securing funded projects.

Keynote Session on: “Funding Pathways: Exploring Agencies & Mastering the Approach”

Dr. Lawani delivered an insightful and comprehensive session on “Funding Pathways: Exploring Agencies & Mastering the Approach.” He emphasized that funding is not merely about seeking financial support but about establishing a strong “problem-market fit” in academia. He encouraged participants to shift their mindset from traditional proposal writing to value proposition design and stakeholder-oriented research. Dr. Lawani elaborated on various funding agencies at national and international levels, including UGC, DST, ICSSR, CSIR, DBT, ICMR, AICTE, and DRDO. He provided detailed insights into different schemes, fellowships, research grants, and funding opportunities available for faculty members, researchers, and students. He also discussed emerging funding trends under the National Research Foundation (NRF), focusing on large-scale, consortium-based, and problem-solving research. He guided participants on aligning research proposals with government priorities, policy outcomes, and societal needs. The session further covered real-time examples and ongoing calls for proposals were also shared to provide practical exposure to participants.

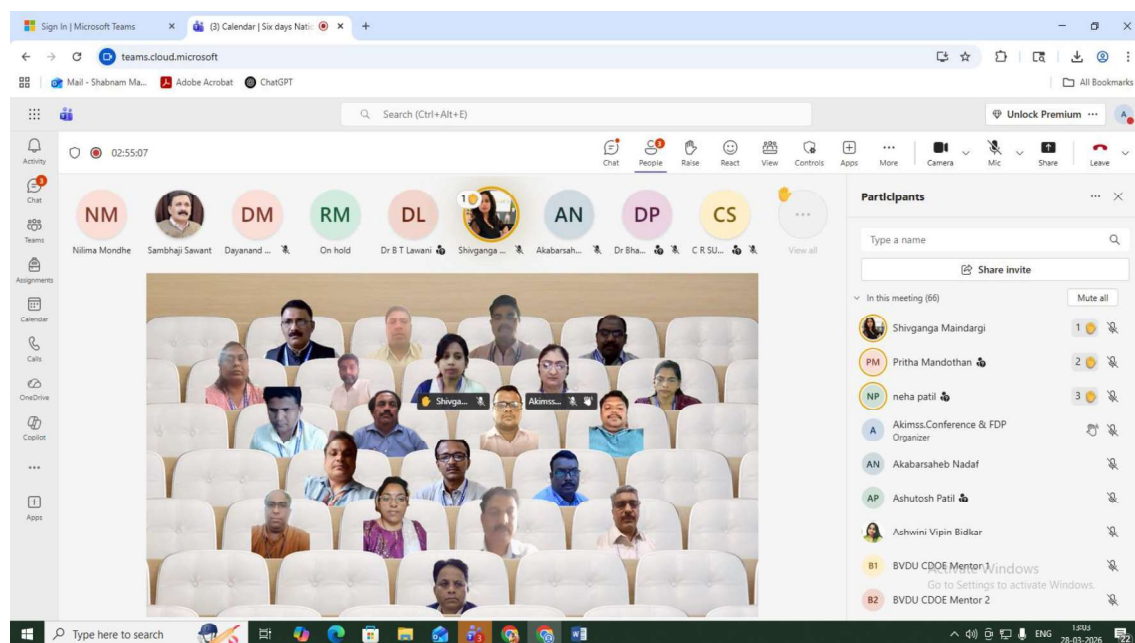

Overall, the session was highly informative and enriched the participants’ understanding of research funding mechanisms, proposal strategies, and emerging opportunities in the research ecosystem. The session concluded with an interactive discussion, where participants clarified their queries regarding funding applications and research planning.

Valedictory Session:

The Valedictory Session was conducted at 12:30 PM, wherein Prof. Nilima Mondhe presented a detailed summary of all six days of the FDP, highlighting the key learnings and outcomes of each session. Some participants, including Dr. Mahadev Patil and Prof. Amar Chavhan, shared their valuable feedback and appreciated the organizing team for conducting such an informative and insightful programme on research funding. The session concluded with a Vote of Thanks delivered by Dr. Rahul Manjare, expressing gratitude to all resource persons, participants, and organizers for their active involvement and support.

भारती विद्यापीठ येथे फॅकल्टी डेव्हलपमेंट प्रोग्राम यशस्वी

सोलापूर : अभिजित कदम इन्स्टिट्यूट ऑफ मॅनेजमेंट अँड सोशल सायन्सेस सोलापूर येथे सहा दिवसांचा राष्ट्रीय पातळीवरील फॅकल्टी डेव्हलपमेंट प्रोग्राम अत्यंत उत्साहात व यशस्वीरित्या पार पडला. या कार्यक्रमाचे उद्घाटन प्रा. डॉ. कीर्ती महाजन यांच्या हस्ते करण्यात आले.

उद्घाटन समारंभात इन्स्टिट्यूटचे संचालक प्रा. डॉ. एस. बी. सावंत यांनी प्रमुख पाहुण्यांचे स्वागत केले. तसेच विविध राज्यांतून सहभागी झालेल्या सर्व प्राध्यापकांचे स्वागत केले. या प्रसंगी कार्यक्रमाच्या समन्वयक डॉ. एस. एस. माने, मॅनेजमेंट विभाग प्रमुख प्रा. सी. आर. सूर्यवंशी, तसेच सर्व प्राध्यापक व विविध राज्यांतून सहभागी झालेले प्राध्यापक, संशोधक दूरभाष पद्धतीने उपस्थित होते.

या फॅकल्टी डेव्हलपमेंट प्रोग्रामचे आयोजन संशोधकांना, सल्लागार सेवा, प्रकल्प निधी तसेच संशोधन अनुदान यामधील विविध संघर्षाबाबत सखोल माहिती मिळावी या उद्देशाने करण्यात आले होते. तसेच प्राध्यापकांनी केलेल्या संशोधन कार्यातून निधी कसा प्राप्त करावा, संशोधन कल्पनांना निधीयोज

सोलापूर : फॅकल्टी डेव्हलपमेंट प्रोग्रामच्या उद्घाटनप्रसंगी प्रा. डॉ. कीर्ती महाजन व मान्यवर.

प्रस्तावांमध्ये कसे रूपांतर करावे आणि उद्योग व शैक्षणिक क्षेत्रांमधील दुवा कसा मजबूत करावा यावर विशेष भर देण्यात आला.

या कार्यक्रमात देशातील विविध राज्यांतून सुमारे २०० हून अधिक प्राध्यापकांनी सहभाग नोंदवला. सहभागी प्राध्यापकांना राष्ट्रीय पातळीवर कार्यरत असलेल्या अनुभवी तज्ञ व शिक्षणतज्ज्ञांकडून मार्गदर्शन मिळाले. वेगवेगळ्या राज्यांतून आलेल्या तज्ज्ञांनी संशोधन प्रस्ताव लेखन, निधी मिळवण्याच्या प्रक्रिया, उच्च संघी, सल्लागार सेवांचे महत्त्व तसेच प्रत्यक्ष उद्योगातील अनुभव या विविध विषयांवर आपली मते मांडली.

संपूर्ण कार्यक्रमादरम्यान परस्पर-संवादी सत्रे, चर्चासत्रे आणि प्रत्यक्ष उदाहरणांच्या माध्यमातून प्राध्यापकांना व्यावहारिक ज्ञान देण्यात आले. यामुळे सहभागी प्राध्यापकांच्या संशोधन क्षमतेत तसेच निधी मिळवण्याच्या कौशल्यामध्ये लक्षणीय वाढ होण्यास मदत झाली. हा सहा दिवसांचा कार्यक्रम शैक्षणिक क्षेत्रात संशोधन संस्कृती वृद्धिंगत करण्यासाठी तसेच शैक्षणिक संस्था आणि उद्योग यांच्यातील सहकार्य अधिक दृढ करण्याच्या दृष्टीने अत्यंत उपयुक्त ठरला.

कार्यक्रमाच्या यशस्वी आयोजनाबद्दल सर्व उपस्थितांनी आयोजकांचे अभिनंदन केले.

Conclusion:

The Six-Day National Level Faculty Development Programme (FDP) on “Research Grants, Project Funding and Consultancy for Academic Institutions” was successfully organized and proved to be highly beneficial for all participants. Throughout the six days, the FDP provided comprehensive insights into various aspects of research funding, proposal writing, consultancy development, and collaboration with funding agencies.

Each session was thoughtfully designed and delivered by eminent resource persons, covering key areas such as transforming academic ideas into fundable proposals, understanding funding mechanisms, evaluation criteria, consultancy opportunities, and effective engagement with funding bodies. The programme enabled participants to gain both theoretical knowledge and practical strategies required to secure research grants and undertake impactful research projects.

The FDP significantly contributed to enhancing the research capabilities of faculty members and motivated them to align their research work with societal needs, government priorities, and global trends. It also emphasized the importance of innovation, interdisciplinary collaboration, and industry-academia linkage. The active participation, positive feedback, and appreciation from participants reflect the success of the programme. Overall, the FDP achieved its objectives of strengthening research culture, promoting consultancy practices, and encouraging faculty members to actively engage in funded research and academic excellence.
