ABOUT UNIVERSITY

Bharati Vidyapeeth (Deemed to be University), Pune, India is a premier University in education and research. The University was established in 1964 by the visionary Dr Patangrao Kadam, with a motto of “Social Transformation through Dynamic Education”. Today the University is a prestigious educational institution with a multifaceted presence across India and strives to provide quality education. Bharati Vidyapeeth, the parent organisation of this University is one of the largest educational organisations of the country. It has 180 educational units under its umbrella including 80 colleges and Institutions of conventional and professional disciplines.

Today the University has become synonymous with quality education and holistic development. With its illustrious history and heritage, the institution has contributed immensely to the growth of the legal profession and has upheld its tradition of producing meritorious legal scholars who dedicate themselves to public service and reform. The generations of distinguished legal luminaries who have been nurtured by this unique institution have made a seminal contribution globally to the evolution of the field of law.

In essence, Bharati Vidyapeeth (Deemed to be University) stands as a beacon of educational inclusivity, offering a diverse range of courses across multiple campuses and cities. It continues to shape the intellectual landscape of the nation, empowering students to excel in their chosen fields and contribute meaningfully to society.

NEW LAW COLLEGE, PUNE

Established in 1978, Bharati Vidyapeeth (Deemed to be University), New Law College stands as a beacon of excellence in legal education recognized nationally and internationally. Nestled in Pune, it is a constituent unit of Bharati Vidyapeeth (Deemed to be University), approved by the Bar Council of India and the University Grants Commission. The College was inaugurated in the year 1978 at the hands of Hon'ble J. Y.V. Chandrachud, the then Chief Justice of India. The foundation stone of the College has been laid by Hon'ble Justice. R.C. Lahoti, the then Chief Justice of India.

The College has earned significant recognition and accolades for its commitment to excellence, achieving notable milestones in various prestigious rankings and surveys. The Ministry of HRD, Government of India has acknowledged the institution with an 'A' grade, reassuring the quality of education provided. The institution's prowess extends to national and state rankings, securing the National Rank-3 and State Rank-2 by IIRF-2023.

In addition to its emphasis on practical training, the college boasts one of the finest libraries, renowned for its extensive collection of both Indian and foreign books—a treasure trove valued at over Rs. 1.7 crore. Notably, the library stands out as perhaps the only one in Pune with a prestigious collection of All England Law Reports, United States Supreme Court Reports, and Corpus Juris Secundum Halsbury Law England.

We welcome you to Bharati Vidyapeeth University's New Law College for an enlightening legal experience: a journey where tradition meets innovation, and legal brilliance finds its home.

“Law School taught me one thing, how to take two situations that are exactly same and show how different they are”
– Hart Pomerantz

It gives us immense pleasure to announce the 13th Edition of the Justice P.N. Bhagwati International Moot Court Competition, 2025 which is being organized by the Moot Court Society of Bharati Vidyapeeth (Deemed to be University), New Law College, Pune. I take this opportunity to cordially invite all the esteemed National as well as International Universities/ Colleges/ Institutions to be a part of this magnificent opportunity. This annual Moot Court Competition is a testament to our commitment to nurturing and honing the legal talents of our students.

The purpose of this competition has constantly been to give aspiring legal professionals a satisfying experience. It provides a chance for aspiring lawyers to improve their advocacy abilities, sharpen their argumentation skills, and gain a thorough understanding of the court process by participating in simulated legal procedures. It is indeed a moment of great pride for our College to host this event, which has evolved into a platform for legal excellence and scholarly discourse.

It has always been a pleasure to witness the brightest legal minds from various institutions come together to engage in the art of advocacy. Together, let us make this event a memorable and intellectually stimulating experience for all participants. I am looking forward to seeing law schools from all over the world get represented at this renowned event.

MOOT COURT SOCIETY

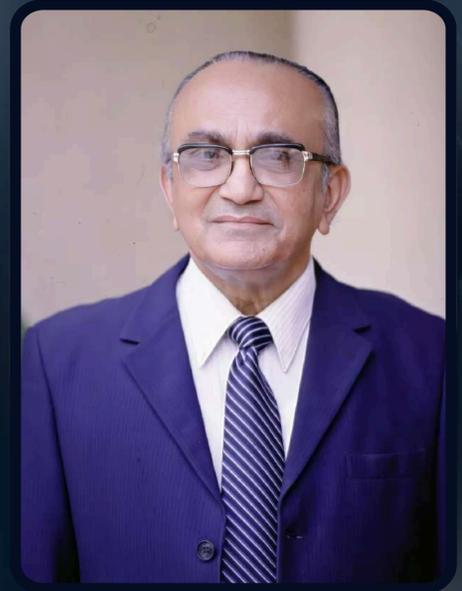

Mooting is one of the most vital facets in the life of a law student as it lays down the foundation of the legal arena and its complexities. The Moot Court Society ("MCS") of New Law College, Pune was established with the motto of "Refining mooters Redefining mooting". The raison d'être of the MCS is the value of effective oral advocacy and legal drafting skills to sharpen the acumen of budding legal professionals.

MCS is a student-run faculty coordinated body, under the guidance of our patron Dr Ujwala Bendale (Dean, I/C Principal, New Law College, Pune) that oversees all the mooting-related activities in which the college participates as well as the which are hosted on the campus. Presently, the society comprises 15 student members who supervise all the functions of Moot Court. The society stands as a testament to the power of teamwork and perseverance over many years.

The society organises various National, International as well as Intra-college competitions to train the students as well as to give them ample exposure for the future. The society has a direct bearing on the future of the students and the college itself. Since the year of its constitution, it has been working consistently and tirelessly for the welfare of the students. The students have consistently been performing phenomenally well at national and international level competitions which inspires the students and helps the MCS to set new standards of excellence every passing year.

JUSTICE P.N. BHAGWATI

Justice Prafullachandra Natwarlal Bhagwati born on 21 December 1921, was enrolled in the Bar Council on 24 February 1948, and practiced commercial and constitutional affairs until he was appointed as Justice of Gujarat High Court in July 1960 and subsequently due to his exceptional field of vision for law, he was appointed as the Chief Justice of Gujarat HC in 1967. In 1973 he was promoted to the Supreme Court and served for 13 significant years until 1986 which led to the evolution and development of law. He became the 17th Chief Justice of India in 1985 and continued until his retirement in 1986. Justice Bhagwati always propagated the need to work towards legal aid. He is known as the father of "PIL" and always worked towards the upliftment of down-trodden. A tribal village, whose people benefitted from one of his judgments, renamed the village "Bhagwati Puram" as a gesture of regard. His interpretation of Article 21 of the Indian Constitution in the case of Maneka Gandhi v. UOI, is no secret, his efforts in this arena have expanded the scope of the "State" and thus, led to greater security for the citizens and increased accountability of the state.

Alongside his contribution to the Indian Judiciary, he has been an inspiration in the international arena too which led to the formation of many grass root level Human Rights NGOs. He has been a member of the Committee of Experts of the ILO for over 15 years. For over 6 years he was the Vice-Chairman of the United Nations Human Rights Committee and later was elected as the Chairman. Justice Bhagwati believed in "Justice for All" and worked towards its achievement till his demise in 2017.

ABOUT THE COMPETITION
