Venue of the Event: Class room 108

Date of event: 24th March 2026

No. of Participants: 7

The Department of Law, BVIMR, organized the Legal Opinion Writing Competition as a cornerstone academic event of Rena Fest 2026. Held on March 24, 2026, this competition was specifically designed to cultivate the drafting precision and analytical depth required in the professional legal sphere. Under the esteemed guidance of Dr. Gaurav Gupta (Head of Department) and the strategic coordination of Dr. Neha Garg (Faculty Coordinator), the competition sought to transform theoretical legal knowledge into actionable professional advice. The vision was to move beyond rote learning and challenge students to interpret complex statutes with clarity, logic, and foresight.

Objective

The primary objective of the Legal Opinion Writing Competition was to enhance students' analytical abilities and their understanding of how to frame clear, well-reasoned legal opinions. The event aimed to develop clarity of thought, strengthen research skills, and enable participants to effectively interpret legal issues and present sound opinions. It also focused on bridging the gap between theoretical knowledge and its practical application.

Event Strategy

The event was strategically designed to provide participants with a practical and engaging experience of legal opinion writing. Participants were given problem-based scenarios that required careful analysis, identification of key legal issues, and application of relevant legal principles.

The strategy emphasized:

- Understanding how to frame and structure legal opinions
- Encouraging in-depth legal research
- Enhancing clarity, precision, and logical reasoning
- Promoting a broader perspective while analyzing legal problems

This approach ensured that students developed a clear understanding of how to write effective legal opinions in a professional manner.

Outcome of the Event

The outcome of the event was highly positive and impactful. It gave students a fresh and broader perspective on how to approach and write legal opinions. Participants gained a better understanding of how to think critically and present their analysis in a structured way.

The event helped participants to:

- Improve analytical and reasoning skills
- Understand the practical aspects of writing legal opinions
- Develop a more clear and structured approach towards legal problem-solving

Overall, the event created a valuable learning experience, and the participants, judging process, and overall execution were nice and commendable.

Brief of the Event

The Legal Opinion Writing Competition was conducted successfully with active participation and great enthusiasm from students. The event was well-organized, and the overall experience was enriching for everyone involved.

The competition was judged by Dr. Nishta Chugh, whose insightful feedback added great value to the event. The feedback particularly focused on improving the framing of legal opinions and encouraged students to broaden their scope while analyzing issues, which helped participants gain a deeper understanding.

The presence and support of Head of Department Dr. Gaurav Gupta and Faculty Coordinator Neha Garg played an important role in the smooth conduct of the event.

Overall, the participants, judging, and management of the event were highly appreciable, making it a successful and meaningful experience for all.
