Description-

On February 20, 2025, Vegan Outreach India organized a session on food and health awareness in collaboration with NSS UNIT OF BVDUET NM titled Food Planet Health awareness session in the Seminar Hall, starting at 3:30 PM. The event was attended by 150 students and 5 faculty members, creating an engaging environment for learning and discussion. The session aimed to raise awareness about the impact of food choices on both health and the environment. Aastha Gupta, the speaker for the event, provided valuable insights on the importance of conscious food decisions. She highlighted how our dietary habits not only affect our well-being but also have significant consequences for animals and the environment. Aastha emphasized the ethical and ecological implications of consuming animal-based products, urging attendees to consider plant-based alternatives as a way to promote better health and contribute to environmental sustainability. Her informative presentation left the audience with a deeper understanding of how food choices can play a pivotal role in shaping a more compassionate and sustainable future.
